

RECREATION COMMISSION MONTHLY MEETING MINUTES

MONDAY NOVEMBER 9, 2015

Members present: Cindi Beede, Sheena Royce, Catie Caisse, Christi Filipi, Terri Robbitts, and Bruce Lafond.

Mrs. Robbitts convened the meeting at 7:00.

1. Spooktacular Review: The 2015 Spooktacular Fall Fest was deemed another success for the Recreation Department and Fitzwilliam Library. There were well over 80 in attendance. Possible changes discussed included arranging the storyteller to perform at a time separate from other activities. Other ideas included adding activities such as a hay ride, movie showing, and or dance.
2. Basketball and Cheer: Advertisements for a Basketball Coordinator have run in the Keene Sentinel, the town's newsletters, and on FB. It is also posted at the Town Hall. Only one person has submitted an application at this time. The deadline for applications is Friday Nove 20th. Registration is tentatively scheduled for Dec 8th at the Fitzwilliam Town Hall from 5:30-7:00pm. Cindi is waiting for a response from Nicole Dubriske in reference to the Cheer program.
3. Ski Trail Clean-Up: Holman Contracting has submitted an invoice in the amount of $1200 for trail clean-up.
4. Kripalu Yoga: There will be a break from Yoga for the month of December. The current session ends November 19th. Classes should resume in January.
5. Ice rink: The replacement liner should arrive any day now.
6. Open House: Convenient MD, a new business located in Keene, has invited the Fitzwilliam Recreation Department to an Open House on December 9, 2015 at 11:30am. Claire Dioro, Director of Business and Community Relations reached out to show their interest in sponsoring future programming and being a part of the community. Cindi will try to attend.

Mr. Lafond made a motion to adjourn at 8:30pm. Mrs. Royce seconded the motion and the motion passed 6-0.
